

COMMITTEE MEETING OF SOUTH CHESHIRE HARRIERS

9th DECEMBER 2013 AT THE VAGRANTS

ATTENDEES: Alasdair Dyde , Mike Cutler, Neil Jones, Steve Whincup, Andrea Davies, Anne Ward, Andy Painter, Phil Cliff, Diane Smith, Simon Walker, Gill Gibbons, Sue Poole ,Charles Rowlands, Amy Durrant

APOLOGIES: Mike Hatton

MATTERS ARISING

The minutes of the last meeting were agreed. Alasdair explained to the new members of the committee the roles of the different members. The meeting agreed to approach Sue Davies with a view to taking on the responsibilities for the Newsletter.

AWARDS EVENING - Gill Gibbons said that she had sold around 50 tickets for the evening so far and the limit is 120. Neil Jones and Mike Hatton had said that they would put forward 3 or 4 names for the most improved runner and it would be for the club to vote on. There would still be the Club Member of the Year- to be voted for by everybody in the club. Simon Walker would find a ballot box for members to put their votes in.

CLUB CHARITY OF THE YEAR 2014 - There will be a notice put out to say that nominations for the club charity for next year will close in December.

STANDING ITEMS

Membership Secretary - Steve Whincup said that we now had 270 paid up members.

Treasurer - Simon Walker said that the finances were very healthy and he had been to the bank to ascertain what needed to be done to start online banking.

Website - Andy Painter said that he would direct members towards the forum for private matters

Race Manager - Mike Hatton had sent a memo in for Alasdair. Sue Poole said that the woman came 4th in the ladies cross country league (north staffs). Steve Whincup said that he had had a request for the ladies off road champs for ladies to run 6 races to count and not 4 as it is now. Steve Whincup, Neil Jones, Mike Hatton and Sue Poole to discuss the races in the championships for the road and off road in 2014.

ANY OTHER BUSINESS

Mike Cutler had asked that all members leave their kitbags outside the bar area in the hallway when having a drink. Steve Whincup told the meeting that Sportsshoes.com was going to offer the club a group discount. Simon told the committee about the Buffs that Andy Durrant had been looking at – these would cost £9 each and Amy was going to bring in some design samples. Gill Gibbons and Sue Poole said that they would organise a Skittles evening in the Spring.

Amy Durrant said that organisation of the 20 miler was ongoing with the race being one week earlier than this year. Charles Rowlands said that he had had around 40 interested in the Xmas handicap.

Alasdair said that the new signs would arrive after xmas and would replace the old wooden signs that the club has been using for races.

DATE OF NEXT MEETING: Monday 13th January 2014